Part 2: Completed by high school of previous enrollment (not applicable if homeschooled)

Pursuant to IDAPA 08.02.01.50.02, the State Board of Education mandates that GED applicants ages 16 and 17 must submit to the GED testing center written verification of withdrawal from the last school attended, unless homeschooled, and meet one of the following criteria before GED testing. Check as applicable:

- Behind one year or more in credits earned
- Expelled, or on recommendation of the school
- Pregnant or a parent
- Entering college, military service, or an employment training program
- Enrolled in an adult education or Job Corps program
- Incarcerated

Students do not need proof of enrollment in college, military service, employment training, adult education, or Job Corps programs.

To the best of my knowledge, the above-named student meets one or more of the criteria noted and has requested GED testing. As the principal or school counselor noted below, I have met with the student and the student's parents or guardians to discuss the student's participation in GED testing. I also certify that the student is not enrolled in school.
