I. Policy Statement

North Idaho College supports innovation, progressive instruction, creative expression and the free exchange of ideas. The college encourages employees to publish and copyright, invent, and patent, or trademark materials and objects of their own creation that will contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

North Idaho College remains committed to full compliance with copyright, patent, and trademark laws and takes reasonable steps to respect the property rights of authors, inventors, developers, and creators of protected material.

II. Overview & Purpose

This policy governs the creation and use of intellectual property at North Idaho College, including the production of goods and services which copyright, trademark, and patents protect.

III. Scope

This policy applies to all North Idaho College employees and students involved in the creation, production, and use of intellectual property at North Idaho College.

IV. Creation of Intellectual Property

In the pursuit of academic endeavors and academic freedom, North Idaho College holds that the creation, discovery and dissemination of knowledge remain central to the success of the College mission and to society as a whole.

Faculty, staff, and students who create intellectual property in academic endeavors without significant use of college resources can claim sole ownership of said property, unless the creator and the college enter into a specific contract before the work is begun.

Intellectual property created for the administrative functions of the College, or otherwise not qualifying as an academic endeavor, remains the property of the College, unless the creator and the College enter into a specific contract before the work is begun.

Faculty, staff, and students, at their discretion, may enter into specific contracts with the College for work outside their regular employment agreements with the College.

Contractors and partners not employed by the College will have ownership of intellectual property as specified in their contractual agreements.

V. Economic Development/Business Innovation Agreements

North Idaho College, may engage in entrepreneurship development and other economic development activities in support of business and industry. These entities may include organizations supporting business incubation, acceleration, commercialization, and funding; including for-profit and not-for-profit organizations, higher education institutions, and local, state, and federal entities. NIC reserves the right to deviate from this policy and corresponding procedure in order to contract with such organizations regarding the development and ownership of intellectual property as a part of the College's economic development efforts. Any deviation from this Intellectual Property policy must be submitted in writing and approved by the administration by either a formal contract or memorandum of understanding.
